WHO IS YSS?

Since 1974, YSS has been a beacon of hope, reaching over 60,000 youth through shelter, residential, community-based, and professional services. Their commitment to improving the physical and emotional well-being of young individuals is evident in their work addressing the debilitating effects of abuse, addiction, and trauma. YSS builds the skills and connections necessary for success, making a lasting impact on the lives of youth, adults, families, and the community.
